

You are invited to apply to the LexisNexis African Ancestry Network LexisNexis Rule of Law Foundation 2023 Fellowship. LexisNexis Rule of Law Foundation in partnership with the LexisNexis Legal and Professional African Ancestry Network is pleased to continue its partnership with the Historically Black Colleges and Universities Law School Consortium (HBCULSC) which will enable two fellows at each of the six law schools in the HBCULSC to participate in a prestigious fellowship program with LexisNexis.

The Fellowship will award a $10,000 tuition grant to selected applicants. Participants will engage in a unique experience where Fellows will have the opportunity to identify and address the challenge of systemic racism in the legal system. Fellows will spend nine months accelerating their career, developing their leadership skills, and creating opportunities to make a real difference.

Applicants should meet the following requirements:

- Passion for and commitment to addressing the challenge of systemic racism in the legal system
- Current enrollment in one of the HBCULSC law schools (2L or greater) and will remain enrolled through November 2023
- Ability to dedicate between up to 10 hours per week to Fellowship
- GPA of at least 2.5

To learn more about the program, you may review the Fellowship 2022 website.

Submit application online, including all documents, and any related questions to Adonica Black at adonica.black@lexisnexis.com by January 20, 2023 at 9 PM ET.