Veterans' educational benefits are administered by the US Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). I understand that to comply with Veterans Administration (VA) regulations, Florida A&M University College of Law must submit registration and, at times, academic progress reports to the VA. This is required for processing, and submitting this form serves as authorization to release this information. Authorized VA representatives may review Florida A&M University College of Law Records to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, I understand that I am responsible for reporting any changes in my registration status or enrollment (e.g., add, drop, incompletes, and withdrawal) to FAMU Law School Certifying Official. Any changes made after certification is submitted to the VA may affect my VA benefit amounts. If I do not wish to be certified for VA education benefits by Florida A&M University College of Law, I must contact the College of Law Office of the Registrar's Office.

Veterans using Post 9/11 GI Benefits and scholarships; some scholarships may reduce the amount of your tuition paid by the GI Bill. If your scholarship can only pay tuition, the GI Bill cannot pay that tuition a second time.

Finally, I understand that I am responsible for any outstanding balance on my student account not covered by VA benefits. Benefits eligibility and payment questions must be directed to the US Department of Veterans Affairs.

By Signing below, I have read and understand the above information and authorize Florida A&M University College of Law to certify my VA educational benefits.
